Benefits of Strong Principal-Coach Communications

To Principal	To Mentor	To New Teacher
• Provides channel to communicate and collaborate • Informs coach's support and assistance • Strengthens coach's support for school vision/goals • Informs professional development support	• Helps inform support to address school needs/ goals • Promotes communication around school policies and practices that affect beginning teachers • Helps coach navigate the school context • Provides an additional lens on beginning teacher's practice • Helps principal support induction	• Ensures that coach's support matches principal's expectations • Helps avoid redundant or conflicting support • Helps align coach's and principal's assistance • Strengthens principal's support for induction and coach's responsiveness to school expectations

Copyright © 2012 New Teacher Center. All rights reserved.