

Government Toolkit: Indicator 2.1.1

Student Handout: Government: Indicator 2.1.1

Goal 2.0 Peoples Of The Nation And World

Expectation 2.1 The student will evaluate the interdependent relationship of United States politics and government to world affairs.

Indicator 2.1.1 The student will analyze economic, political, social issues and their affect on foreign policies of the United States.

Assessment Limits:

Policies of United States government that promote or fail to promote relationships with other countries include national defense (military), arms control, and security of other nations, trade, human rights, economic sanctions, and foreign aid.

Contemporary concerns which affect international relationships including: national security, economic well-being, the spread of democracy, developing nations, weapons of mass destruction, terrorism, and global economic conditions.

Public Release - Selected Response Item - Released in 2013

Government Indicator 2.1.1

Read the excerpt below.

"Everyone is entitled... to a fair and public hearing by an independent and impartial tribunal [judge/jury], in the determination of his rights and obligations and of any criminal charge against him."

—Article 10 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights

According to the excerpt, all people are entitled to

- A. the right to due process of law
- B. freedom of expression
- C. freedom from cruel or unusual punishment
- D. the right to representation by legal counsel

Correct Answer

- A. the right to due process of law

Item

Read the excerpt below.

“Everyone is entitled... to a fair and public hearing by an independent and impartial tribunal [judge/jury], in the determination of his rights and obligations and of any criminal charge against him.”

—Article 10 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights

According to the excerpt, all people are entitled to

- A. the right to due process of law
- B. freedom of expression
- C. freedom from cruel or unusual punishment
- D. the right to representation by legal counsel