

These figures are generals found in the tomb complex. They are six feet, five inches tall. All of the figures were painted in bright colors. Each face on each soldier is individualized.

