

PAMDISS SELF-EVALUATION

Purpose	Describe your purpose. What did you want your readers to understand or think about after reading your essay?
Audience	Who is the audience for this essay? Describe their experience with and knowledge of the topic.
Mode	Circle the primary mode of writing you used. informative/explanatory argument narrative Did you use a secondary mode? If so, list it, and explain why you used it. If not, explain why using one mode was the best choice for this essay.
Diction	List three specific word choices (words or phrases) you used to convey your attitude toward your subject. <input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/> Why were these the most effective choices? <input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/>
Images/Concrete Detail	Write one sentence that illustrates your effective use of imagery. Write a list of at least three concrete details you used in this essay. <input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/> Overall, how did you effectively use concrete details?

Syntax	List sentences that used the following structures Copy your most effective sentence below. Briefly explain why you chose this sentence.
Structure	Describe the organizational pattern you selected for this essay. Why was this the most effective pattern? How did you use transitions to make your essay flow logically? How does the end emphasize the essay's significance?