

Reader's/Writer's Notebook: Conference Sheet

Student Name _____ Block: 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 Week of: _____

Essential Question: Does simply ending an injustice result in justice, or does achieving true justice require something more?

Initial Response: After studying the word justice and analyzing a variety of quotations about justice, compose your initial response to the unit's essential question.

As you are reading, analyzing, and discussing the protest songs, what questions are you wondering about as you consider your response to the unit's essential question?

As you are reading, analyzing, and discussing the protest songs, list words and/or lines from the songs that deepen your thinking about the unit's essential question.

Revised Response: After reading and analyzing several protest songs, revise your response to the unit's essential question.

Reader's/Writer's Notebook: Conference Sheet

Essential Question: Does simply ending an injustice result in justice, or does achieving true justice require something more?

As you are viewing, analyzing, and discussing the images of justice and injustice, what questions are you wondering about as you consider your response to the unit's essential question?

As you are viewing, analyzing and discussing the images of justice and injustice, list details from the images that deepen your thinking about the unit's essential question.

Revised Response: After viewing and analyzing several images of justice and injustice, revise your response to the unit's essential question.

Now that you have read and viewed texts and images that explore justice and injustice, consider and list topics that, through research, would help you extend your thinking about the unit's essential question.

Reader's/Writer's Notebook: Conference Sheet

Essential Question: Does simply ending an injustice result in justice, or does achieving true justice require something more?

As you are reading, analyzing, and discussing the poems, what questions are you wondering about as you consider your response to the unit's essential question?

As you are reading, analyzing, and discussing the poems, list words/lines details from the poems that deepen your thinking about the unit's essential question.

Revised Response: After reading and analyzing several poems about justice and injustice, revise your response to the unit's essential question.

Reader's/Writer's Notebook: Conference Sheet

Essential Question: Does simply ending an injustice result in justice, or does achieving true justice require something more?

As you are reading, analyzing, and discussing the scrolls from The Merchant of Venice, what questions are you wondering about as you consider your response to the unit's essential question?

As you are reading, analyzing, and discussing the scrolls from The Merchant of Venice, list words/lines details from the scrolls that deepen your thinking about the unit's essential question.

Revised Response: After reading and analyzing the scrolls from The Merchant of Venice, revise your response to the unit's essential question.

Reader's/Writer's Notebook: Conference Sheet

Essential Question: Does simply ending an injustice result in justice, or does achieving true justice require something more?

As you are reading, analyzing, and discussing the scenes from The Merchant of Venice, what questions are you wondering about as you consider your response to the unit's essential question?

As you are reading, analyzing, and discussing the scenes from The Merchant of Venice, list words/lines details from the scenes that deepen your thinking about the unit's essential question.

Reader's/Writer's Notebook: Conference Sheet

Revised Response: After reading and analyzing these three scenes from The Merchant of Venice, revise your response to the unit's essential question.

Reader's/Writer's Notebook: Conference Sheet

Revised Response: After this initial research on the issue you have chosen, revise your response to the unit's essential question.

Reader's/Writer's Notebook: Conference Sheet

Essential Question: Does simply ending an injustice result in justice, or does achieving true justice require something more?

As you are viewing, analyzing, and discussing the film clips, what questions are you wondering about as you consider your response to the unit's essential question?

As you are viewing, analyzing, and discussing the film clips, list images, characters, dialogue, and/or events that deepen your thinking about the unit's essential question.

Revised Response: After viewing and analyzing the film clips, revise your response to the unit's essential question.

Reader's/Writer's Notebook: Conference Sheet

Essential Question: Does simply ending an injustice result in justice, or does achieving true justice require something more?

As you are reading, analyzing, and discussing the excerpt from Anthony's speech, what questions are you wondering about as you consider your response to the unit's essential question?

As you are reading, analyzing, and discussing the excerpt from Anthony's speech, list quotations that deepen your thinking about the unit's essential question.

Reader's/Writer's Notebook: Conference Sheet

Revised Response: After reading and analyzing the excerpt from Anthony's speech, revise your response to the unit's essential question.

Reader's/Writer's Notebook: Conference Sheet

Essential Question: Does simply ending an injustice result in justice, or does achieving true justice require something more?

As you continue researching, thinking about, and discussing the issue you have chosen, what questions are you wondering about as you consider your response to the unit's essential question?

As you continue researching, thinking about, and discussing the issue you have chosen, list facts and other information that deepen your thinking about the unit's essential question.

Reader's/Writer's Notebook: Conference Sheet

Revised Response: Now that you have completed your research on the issue you have chosen, revise your response to the unit's essential question.

In the space below, compose a final response to the unit's essential question, taking into consideration the work of the entire unit.

Reader's/Writer's Notebook: Conference Sheet

Student Name _____ Block: 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 Week of: _____

Essential Question: Does simply ending an injustice result in justice, or does achieving true justice require something more?

Sentence of the Week:

Question of the Week:

Phrase or Word of the Week:

Article of the Week:

Title:

Author:

Routine Writing:

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday

Routine Reading:

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday

Routine Word Study

Root

Favorites
New Word	Current root
	Another root with the new definition

Reader's/Writer's Conference

Date	Focus
------	-------