Essential Skills and Knowledge

- Gather and organize primary and secondary sources to address a social studies problem or question. (See MD SLM. 6-8. 2A1, as needed.)
- Use sourcing, contextualization and corroboration to determine the accuracy and reliability of primary and secondary sources for an argument. (See CCSS WHST6-8.8)
- Demonstrate knowledge of a topic or text by selecting appropriate evidence to support a claim or claims. (See CCSS WHST.6-8.7)
- Compare and contrast one’s own claim or claims to all other claims. (See CCSS RL.8.5)
- Construct a draft that integrates key components of the argument and provides reinforcement for the argument:
  - Introduction – features a claim(s) in opposition to any alternate claim(s)
  - Body – introduce claims and supporting evidence
  - Conclusion – integrates key components of the argument and provides reinforcement for the argument
- Cite evidence accurately and appropriately. (See MD SLM 3.c.2, SLM 5.0)
- Use academic words and phrases specific to the disciplines of social studies to combine ideas, acknowledge alternate claims, and create cohesion and clarity in order to purposely formulate an argument. (See CCSS L.8.1a, L.8.3a)
- Apply the revision and editing stages of the writing process to the writing piece focusing on the audience and purpose. (See CCSS WHST.6-8.5)
- Prepare the final product for presentation and/or publication. (See CCSS WHST.6-8.6)

Maryland Common Core State Curriculum Framework

Writing Standards for Literacy in History/Social Studies

Grades 6-8

| 2a | Introduce a topic clearly, previewing what is to follow; organize ideas, concepts, and information into broader categories; include formatting (e.g., headings) graphics (e.g., charts, tables) and multimedia when useful to aiding comprehension |
| 2b | Develop the topic with relevant, well-chosen facts, definitions, concrete details, quotations, or other information and examples |
| 2c | Use appropriate and varied transitions to create cohesion and clarify the relationships among ideas and concepts |
| 2d | Use precise language and domain-specific vocabulary to inform about or explain the topic |
| 2e | Establish and maintain a formal style |
| 2f | Provide a concluding statement or section that follows from and supports the information or explanation presented |

Essential Skills and Knowledge

* Gather and evaluate information about a social studies problem or topic from a variety of reliable print and digital sources. (See CCSS RHST.6-8.7, WHST.6-8.8)

* Determine the most effective information gathered from a variety of reliable primary and secondary sources using sourcing, contextualization, and corroboration. (See MD SLM.6-8.2A1.)

* Review the information for relevancy and accuracy

* Analyze information selected to determine the ideas and concepts

* Organize information effectively within an established structure

* Construct a draft that integrates key components of the argument and provides reinforcement for the argument:
  * Introduction – presents a thesis clearly and establishes the important concepts and ideas
  * Body – explains the topic with attention to the effective organization of information
  * Conclusion – logically integrates and reinforces the main points of the informative/explanatory text

* Cite information from sources accurately and appropriately. (See MD SLM 3.c.2, SLM 5.0)

* Use academic words and phrases, with an emphasis on the discipline of social studies, to combine ideas and create cohesion and clarity in order to explain and idea or topic.

* Apply the revision and editing stages of the writing process to the writing piece focusing on the audience and purpose. (See CCSS WHST.6-8.5)

* Prepare the final product for presentation and/or publication. (See CSSS WHST.6-8.6)

CCR Anchor Standard #3 Write narratives to develop real or imagined experiences or events using effective technique, well-chosen details, and well-structured event sequences.

Refer to Common Core Language Progressive Skills, by Grade

Black = Common Core State Standard language  Red = Maryland-specific suggestions for instruction
WHST.6-8.3 Not applicable as a separate requirement.

(Note: Students' narrative skills continue to grow in these grades. The Standards require that students be able to incorporate narrative elements effectively into arguments and informative/explanatory texts. In history/social studies, students must be able to incorporate narrative accounts into their analyses of individuals or events of historical import.)
